

French students are afraid of school

Contributed by Administrator
Monday, 02 March 2009
Last Updated Monday, 02 March 2009

24th September in France is celebrated on the first day of the fight against school failure. To say the official statistics, at the seventh ended the French primary school pupil can not well read, write and count. Ideas on the fight against school failure by non-governmental organizations involved in providing assistance to pupils from poor families. It will draw attention to the problem of failure in the French education.

According to the ministry of education about 15 percent. students who begin their education in high school, has no basic skills of primary school. About 150 thousand teenagers definitively ends every year with no school education or diploma qualifications. School failure, particularly affecting children from poor and immigrant suburbs.

Provide more accurate data daily "Le Parisien". You can find the results of a survey to students at the Urban Foundation (Afev) conducted among 700 students with severe learning problems. As many as one third of this group recognizes that before you go to school gets stomach pains due to stress and fear. Almost every third asked fears raised his hand to respond to a question from a teacher, he is afraid to commit an error. Every fifth of the surveyed students did not understand the teacher's instructions, and it did not ask him to explain. In the spring of this year, the additional courses for weaker students resort offers a French education.