United Kingdom is known for its high quality teaching and the diversity of programs offered by higher education. Qualifications gained at British universities are recognized around the world. Universities are divided into more college and universities. Most bachelor takes three or four years, however, some lines require more study, such as medicine, dentistry and architecture.

Anyone who wants to study in England, must have adequate language certificate. Typically, English language certificates are:

CAE - Certificate in Advanced English: This is the advanced level exam. It consists of five parts: reading comprehension, writing, speaking, listening comprehension of text and test gramatyczn - lexical. The exam is conducted twice a year at the offices of the British Council. More information: www.britishcouncil.pl

CPE - Certificate of Proficiency in English: this is the certifying exam perfect knowledge of English. It also consists of five parts, such as CAE. Also, it is carried out twice a year at the British Council centers. Courses in preparation for CAE and CPE examinations carried many language schools.

Very often, the UK universities also accept other language exams such as TOEFL and IELTS, which are already mentioned in earlier articles. If, however, do not have the appropriate certificate - there is no reason to panic, there is an opportunity to undergo a language course in England immediately before the commencement of study or even in the course of study.

Entrance examination, in principle, does not, however, some schools organize competitions certificates or interviews. Each university has different requirements for recruitment, so please contact your school directly to obtain detailed information. Are taken into account the evaluation of the model objects, ie, significant from the point of view is selected by us towards the study. For example, in the fields of business are taken into account the assessment of mathematics. If it is found that the candidate for the study does not have the required qualifications by the university, can decide on a course of preparation, which usually lasts one year.

Before leaving for the UK to do a series of formalities. First of all, please contact your chosen university, complete forms and meet all the requirements for recruitment (eg, high assessment from the relevant items.) Applications for admission to study must be submitted as early as possible. This gives you the best chance to get to the studio. Then we issue a confirmation of the school to readmit the student (we'll need is an entry in the United Kingdom). Requirements can also be done through the organization UCASE. This is an organization that deals with recruitment for studies. UACS form can be obtained either in the British Council office or downloaded from the website www.ucas.com. It should also have proof that we have adequate financial resources to pay for college.
